We did our best as a group in order to become more familiar with github and to create our websites based on what we learned during the course, making also some research on the internet.

Individually we worked as followed

Ariel Joseph Roa leader of the group responsible for the gaming news website

Charilaos Karras responsible for the general news website

Sofiia Porutenko responsible for the entertainment website

Panagiotis Georgios Vletsas responsible for the technology website

Maijkell Aliu responsible for the sports website
